Gosch were asked in 2007 to design an annexe building to replace the existing garage block. The new addition comprises a large family/games/entertainment space at basement level, a triple garage at grade and a master bedroom suite at first floor level. The new annexe is in a very prominent location in the Wimbledon Common Conservation area, with this in mind, it has been designed with a modern interior in contrast to the arts and crafts exterior

Approval was granted by The London Borough of Merton. Gosch have been commissioned to produce and issue all Tender documentation and supervise construction.
